

The Manufacturing Reliability Institute

Managing Assets to Maximize Profitability

*A Division of The Center for Business and Industry
Lake Land College*

Reliable
Plant
Capacity

TO: CEO's, Operations Managers, Plant Comptrollers, Process Engineers, Maintenance Managers, Maintenance Supervisors, Maintenance Planners

RE: Manufacturing Reliability - Free Informational Presentation

DATE: April 23, 2009, 8:30 – 11:30
Refreshments and Lunch provided

LOCATION: The Workforce Development Center, 305 Richmond Avenue, Mattoon, IL

BENEFITS:

- Assess your organization's current reliability status
- Examine Maintenance Reliability profitability strategies
- Learn the secrets of success based on experience
- Learn about implementation grant opportunities
- Tour the Manufacturing Skills Lab – over $1 million in hands-on Amatrol Maintenance Training resources.
- Meet our team of experienced reliability trainers and consultants

KEYNOTE: Gary Pelini, CMRP. Gary is a certified maintenance and reliability professional with over forty years of technical leadership and development experience. Gary lived the Honda way for over twenty years and shares his experiences and understanding of manufacturing reliability, workforce engagement, and lean skills development strategies in a manner that resonates across all levels of an organization. He holds a State of Ohio Industrial and Engineering Technologies teaching certificate, and serves on numerous central Ohio community college and vocational career center advisory boards.

SIGN-UP TODAY: 217-235-1282 or amccormi@lakeland.cc.il.us