

Proactive Organizations Absolute Commandment for Brain Storming

Thou shall listen to all solution, idea, or thought to openly evaluate, accept and improve the concept as a team to maximize long term profits through participation and ownership.

Ten Commandments of Brain Storming for Emerging Organizations

1. Thou shall never reject a solution because you see something wrong.
2. Thou shall never reject a solution because it will cause a conflict.
3. Thou shall never reject a solution because it was not your idea.
4. Thou shall never reject a solution because it seems impossible.
5. Thou shall never reject a solution because you have sure fire fix.
6. Thou shall never reject an idea because of the cost of resources or time.
7. Thou shall never reject an idea because it breaks company policy or contracts.
8. Thou shall never reject an idea because it contradicts how you do things.
9. Thou shall never reject an idea because it has been tried before and failed or might fail.
10. Thou shall never reject an idea because it will succeed.